240 Reagan Alumni Launch Council In Support of Donald J. Trump for President

Today, Donald J. Trump announced the Reagan Alumni Advisory Council for Trump-Pence representing 240 esteemed former Reagan advisors that support Donald J. Trump for President. Co-Chairs include the Honorable Edwin Meese III, Ambassador Faith Ryan Whittlesey and the Honorable Francis A. (Frank) Keating.

The Honorable Edwin Meese III served as President Reagan's Attorney General and also as White House Counselor to the President. He said, "Many of us remember 1980, a time when, as today, America suffered from high unemployment and even higher interest rates, a military that needed to be strengthened and rebuilt, and diminished stature in the world of nations. Ronald Reagan turned that around with resolute policies, such as the most significant tax cut in American history, which stimulated the national economy and created 20 million jobs, and a visionary foreign policy of "peace through strength," whereby he rebuilt our military and won the Cold War without firing a shot. We need a Trump-Pence Administration to change the direction of our country. We all know that Hillary Clinton will continue Obama's failed policies, growing the size, scope and cost of the federal government, and endangering our national security."

Ambassador Faith Whittlesey, who served in the Reagan White House as Assistant to the President for Public Liaison and twice as his Ambassador to Switzerland remarked, "Donald Trump believes, as Ronald Reagan did, that smaller, more limited, government that focuses on its core obligations better serves the public by creating conditions in which individuals can freely make choices and pursue opportunities that result in greater prosperity for all. Donald Trump has provided a list of prospective candidates to the Supreme Court all of whom respect the sanctity of human life, religious freedom, and the intent of the Founders. His America First foreign policy will bring about a much-needed reassessment of commitments abroad in view of our nearly $20 trillion in debt and a pressing need to rebuild our homeland infrastructure."

Former Oklahoma Governor Frank Keating, who served as Reagan's Assistant Secretary for Enforcement in the Treasury Department, U.S. Attorney, and later as Associate Attorney General, added, "Donald Trump embraces the Reagan philosophy of lower taxes, limited government, the repeal of the administrative state, and the right and responsibility of every citizen to determine his own future. That is the antithesis of a Hillary Clinton presidency."

Meese, Whittlesey and Keating added, "We are disappointed that the media only wishes to cover personalities in this presidential campaign. Instead, we all need to focus on the policies that will be guiding our country going forward. Donald Trump and Mike Pence support policies that are needed to restore America's greatness, while Clinton-Kaine's policies will accelerate America's decline."

Trump-Pence 2016

(b) (6), (b) (7) --

With less than one week until election day, now is the time for Californian volunteers to help deliver victory for the Trump/Pence ticket.

There are three key tasks that we need everyone's help with this week:

1. Phone from home to battleground states. Please log onto Trump Talk by CLICKING HERE and help make calls this week.

2. Staff a regional phone bank. Find your phone bank by CLICKING HERE.

3. Join our Strike Teams traveling to the battleground states of Nevada and Colorado. Email CAStrikeTeam@DonaldTrump.com if you can join us.

If you have questions regarding Trump Talk, please email: trumptalk@donaldtrump.com or call (347) 474-8797.

The race is tightening, and it's the strength of our volunteers that will push the Trump/Pence ticket over-the-top.

Thank you for all of your hard work and effort. Now is the time for our final push. America's future hangs in the balance.

Sincerely,

Tim Clark
California State Director

Immigration Daily

November 7, 2016

Comment: We Endorse

Immigration Daily has not endorsed any candidate of any Party for any elected political office "national or local" in more than 10 years of continuous daily publication. This is, in large part, due to the fact that immigration has never been central to any national election until the current Presidential race, and in small part, due to the fact that for most elections the two Parties have not historically had insurmountable differences over immigration policy.

For the election tomorrow, both Presidential candidates have laid out their respective visions for immigration in no uncertain terms, offering a significant contrast to each other in approach to immigration policy, and are openly asking the American people for a mandate to carry forth their particular vision into immediate implementation in American policy, law and practice early in 2017. This is the first time since the 1920s, in nearly a century, that immigration has risen to an apex position in the national debate, reflecting no doubt the fact that immigrants as a percentage of US population are now at peaks last seen in the 1920s.

Mr. Trump's rhetoric has focused on undocumented immigrants, and many of our readers can be forgiven for feeling that his actions, if elected President, would therefore focus on the undocumented. However, nothing could be farther from the truth in fact, if elected, Mr. Trump would devastate both documented and undocumented immigration, both temporary and permanent. As examples, H1B and EB5 would both be wiped out from America's immigration system should Mr. Trump be elected. We offer below Mr. Trump's own words, taken from his own position statement on immigration on his website (<https://www.donaldjtrump.com/policies/immigration/>) on H1B and EB5, translated as they apply to H1B and EB5.

H1B:

The first 3 bullets from Mr. Trump's vision statement appear below together with the true and correct translation:

"Prioritize the jobs, wages and security of the American people."

Translation: Make H1Bs impossible through a draconian prevailing wage regime
"Establish new immigration controls to boost wages and to ensure that open jobs are offered to American workers first."

Translation: Institute labor certifications for H1Bs, making H1Bs impracticable (in other words, put the US Department of Labor in charge of all H1Bs guaranteeing multi-year delays in visa issuance, thus killing the H1B program)

"Protect the economic well-being of the lawful immigrants already living here by curbing uncontrolled foreign worker admissions."

Translation: Cut H1B quotas down to four figures to, in effect, abolish the H1B

EB5:

Point number 10 in Mr. Trump's 10-point immigration plan appears below together with the true and correct translation:

"Reform legal immigration to serve the best interests of America and its workers, keeping immigration levels within historic norms."

Translation: Reduce all permanent immigration quotas (including EB5 quotas) down by 80% or more, in effect killing the EB5 program.

We assure our readers that the above translations are not hyperbole. Mr. Trump's statement on immigration was crafted, as he has repeatedly acknowledged, with the assistance of Sen. Sessions (R-AL). Immigration Daily has observed (and occasionally commented on) Sen. Sessions' actions for well over a decade, we are quite familiar with his ideas. Sen. Sessions's vision of immigration is profoundly reactionary, he wants America to revert to immigration levels seen from the 1920s to the 1960s, in other words, to levels when the openly racist National Origin Quota system was in place in America. He has no love lost for either H1B or EB5, and would gladly throw both programs away in his pursuit of a whiter America. Immigration is the one real asset America has against its major trade and military competitors across the world, but Mr. Sessions cares about race over every other consideration. Mr. Trump is using Mr. Sessions' blatantly racist blueprint for his Presidential campaign immigration policy statement. Immigration Daily strongly condemns Mr. Trump's immigration vision.

Ms. Clinton's immigration policy statement

(<https://www.hillaryclinton.com/issues/immigration-reform/>) offers tremendous hope, not just for the undocumented, but for H1B and EB5 too. Her promise of Comprehensive Immigration Reform guarantees massive increases in temporary and permanent numbers for both H1B and EB5 practically every Comprehensive Immigration Reform bill introduced in Congress over the last decade has featured stupendous increases for H1B and EB5. Immigration Daily strongly commends Ms. Clinton's immigration vision.

Immigration Daily doesn't just preach non-partisanship, we practice it. As proof, we have proudly carried, over the last 10 years, more Republican-authored immigration policy articles than any publication in the USA covering all sides of the immigration debate (we have just as proudly carried a huge number of Democratic-authored articles). Since some of our readers have only been with us a few years, we remind them that among Republican luminaries who have written for Immigration Daily are Patrick Buchanan, Newt Gingrich, Arnold Schwarzenegger and Rupert Murdoch. We obtained our non-partisan credential the old-fashioned way: we earned it.

As this election season progressed, we have not minced words in our disdain for Mr. Trump. This disdain stems from our abhorrence of Mr. Trump's immigration vision - we reject his racist immigration viewpoint as profoundly un-American. We believe many of our Democratic readers agree with our contempt for Mr. Trump. However, we are well aware that many of our readers, particularly those who are Republicans, believe Ms. Clinton to be a crooked lying witch, and see in Mr. Trump the only instrument by which she can be stopped from ascending to the Oval Office. We address all our readers - Republicans, Democrats, and Independents: Due to the unprecedented anti-immigration vision embraced by Mr. Trump, and due to the poisonous vehemence by which he promises to pursue his anti-American immigration ideas, even should you believe Ms. Clinton to be a crooked lying witch, she is preferable to Mr. Trump in this election. Immigration Daily proudly endorses Hillary Clinton for President of the United States.

What follows is my 100-day action plan to Make America Great Again.

It is a contract between myself and the American voter — and begins with restoring honesty and accountability, and bringing change to Washington.

On the first day of my term of office, my administration will immediately pursue the following:

Donald Trump's Contract with the American Voter

Six measures to clean up the corruption and special interest collusion in Washington, DC:

FIRST, propose a constitutional amendment to impose term limits on all members of Congress.

SECOND, a hiring freeze on all federal employees to reduce the federal workforce through attrition (exempting military, public safety, and public health).

THIRD, a requirement that for every new federal regulation, two existing regulations must be eliminated.

FOURTH, a five-year ban on White House and Congressional officials becoming lobbyists after they leave government service.

FIFTH, a lifetime ban on White House officials lobbying on behalf of a foreign government.

SIXTH, a complete ban on foreign lobbyists raising money for American elections.

Seven actions to protect American workers:

FIRST, I will announce my intention to renegotiate NAFTA or withdraw from the deal under Article 2205.

SECOND, I will announce our withdrawal from the Trans-Pacific Partnership.

THIRD, I will direct the Secretary of the Treasury to label China a currency manipulator.

FOURTH, I will direct the Secretary of Commerce and U.S. Trade Representative to identify all foreign trading abuses that unfairly impact American workers and direct them to use every tool under American and international law to end those abuses immediately.

FIFTH, I will lift the restrictions on the production of $50 trillion dollars' worth of job-producing American energy reserves, including shale, oil, natural gas and clean coal.

SIXTH, lift the Obama-Clinton roadblocks and allow vital energy infrastructure projects, like the Keystone Pipeline, to move forward.

SEVENTH, cancel billions in payments to U.N. climate change programs and use the money to fix America's water and environmental infrastructure.

Five actions to restore security and the constitutional rule of law:

FIRST, cancel every unconstitutional executive action, memorandum and order issued by President Obama.

SECOND, begin the process of selecting a replacement for Justice Scalia from one of the 20 judges on my list, who will uphold and defend the U.S. Constitution.

THIRD, cancel all federal funding to sanctuary cities.

FOURTH, begin removing the more than two million criminal illegal immigrants from the country and cancel visas to foreign countries that won't take them back.

FIFTH, suspend immigration from terror-prone regions where vetting cannot safely occur. All vetting of people coming into our country will be considered "extreme vetting."

Middle Class Tax Relief and Simplification Act

An economic plan designed to grow the economy 4% per year and create at least 25 million new jobs through massive tax reduction and simplification, in combination with trade reform, regulatory relief and lifting the restrictions on American energy. The largest tax reductions are for the middle class. A middle-class family with two children will get a 35% tax cut. The current number of brackets will be reduced from seven to three, and tax forms will likewise be greatly simplified. The business rate will be lowered from 35% to 15%, and the trillions of dollars of American corporate money overseas can now be brought back at a 10% rate.

End the Offshoring Act

Establishes tariffs to discourage companies from laying off their workers in order to relocate in other countries and ship their products back to the U.S. tax-free.

American Energy and Infrastructure Act

Leverages public-private partnerships, and private investments through tax incentives, to spur $1 trillion in infrastructure investment over ten years. It is revenue neutral.

School Choice and Education Opportunity Act

Redirects education dollars to give parents the right to send their kid to the public, private, charter, magnet, religious or home school of their choice. Ends Common Core and brings education supervision to local communities. It expands vocational and technical education, and makes two- and four-year college more affordable.

Repeal and Replace Obamacare Act

Fully repeals Obamacare and replaces it with Health Savings Accounts, the ability to purchase health insurance across state lines and lets states manage Medicaid funds. Reforms will also include cutting the red tape at the FDA: there are over 4,000 drugs awaiting approval, and we especially want to speed the approval of life-saving medications.

Affordable Childcare and Eldercare Act

Allows Americans to deduct childcare and eldercare from their taxes, incentivizes employers to provide on-site childcare services and creates tax-free dependent care savings accounts for both young and elderly dependents, with matching contributions for low-income families.

End Illegal Immigration Act

Fully-funds the construction of a wall on our southern border with the full understanding that the country of Mexico will be reimbursing the United States for the full cost of such wall; establishes a two-year mandatory minimum federal prison sentence for illegally re-entering the U.S. after a previous deportation, and a five-year mandatory minimum federal prison sentence for illegally re-entering for those with felony convictions, multiple misdemeanor convictions or two or more prior deportations; also reforms visa rules to enhance penalties for overstaying and to ensure open jobs are offered to American workers first.

Restoring Community Safety Act

Reduces surging crime, drugs and violence by creating a task force on violent crime and increasing funding for programs that train and assist local police; increases resources for federal law enforcement agencies and federal prosecutors to dismantle criminal gangs and put violent offenders behind bars.

Restoring National Security Act

Rebuilds our military by eliminating the defense sequester and expanding military investment; provides veterans with the ability to receive public VA treatment or attend the private doctor of their choice; protects our vital infrastructure from cyber-attack; establishes new screening procedures for immigration to ensure those who are admitted to our country support our people and our values.

Clean Up Corruption in Washington Act

Enacts new ethics reforms to drain the swamp and reduce the corrupting influence of special interests on our politics.

I will work with Congress to introduce the following broader legislative measures and fight for their passage within the first 100 days of my Administration:

On November 8th, Americans will be voting for this 100-day plan to restore prosperity to our economy, security to our communities and honesty to our government.

This is my pledge to you.

And if we follow these steps, we will once more have a government of, by and for the people.

One sunny day in January, 2017, an old man approaches the White House from across Pennsylvania Avenue where he'd been sitting on a park bench. He speaks to the U.S. Marine standing guard and says, "I would like to go in and meet with President Obama."

The Marine looks at the man and says, "Sir, Mr. Obama is no longer President and no longer resides here." The old man says, "Okay," and walks away.

The following day the same man approaches the White House and says to the same Marine, "I would like to go in and meet with President Obama."

The Marine again tells the man, "Sir, as I said yesterday, Mr. Obama is no longer President and no longer resides here." The man thanks him and again just walks away.

The third day the same man approaches the White House and speaks to the very same U.S. Marine, saying, "I would like to go in and meet with President Obama."

The Marine, understandably agitated at this point, looks at the man and says, "Sir, this is the third day in a row you have been here asking to speak to Mr. Obama. I've told you already that Mr. Obama is no longer the President and no longer resides here. Don't you understand?"

The old man looks at the Marine and says, "Oh, I understand. I just love hearing it."

The Marine snaps to attention, salutes, and says, "See you tomorrow, Sir!"

I have a feeling President Trump and staff are already silently working on issues of importance and will surprise everyone on his first few days in the White House. Remember Donald Trump likes to finish things ahead of l schedule.

ANON TIP

NOVEMBER 12, 2016

Despite fears of cyber attacks on voting machines, the U.S. presidential election was not hacked—at least not in the traditional sense.

Even so, many of the biggest political stories this year revolved around computers, emails, and espionage. A vindictive ex-KGB strongman and his spies are said to have stolen and leaked political party and campaign emails. An anti-secrecy activist made public troves of purloined documents. A law enforcement official shook up the election by reopening—and reclosing—an investigation into one candidate's correspondences. A disgraced politician who can't seem to keep his digital communications out of the spotlight, got caught sexting with a minor. And, of course, there's that home email server.

As the soon-to-be-inaugurated commander-in-chief might say: The cyber was YUGE! this election.

So what will the next president's cybersecurity policy involve? Well, Donald Trump has proven to be utterly unpredictable. During the campaign, he proposed a boycott of Apple products during the tech giant's showdown with the F.B.I. over iPhone encryption earlier this year. He encouraged Russia, perhaps sarcastically, to find Hillary Clinton's 30,000 missing emails from her private server. And he frequently downplayed top intelligence officials' conclusions about Kremlin-sponsored influence during the campaign season.

Whatever the case, Trump's campaign website reveals few specifics related to cybersecurity other than demanding a "review of all U.S. cyber defenses and vulnerabilities" and then soliciting recommendations to fix them. One thing is certain though: It's unlikely that the president-elect will retaliate against foreign spies for meddling in the democratic process now that he's clinched the executive office.

Trump's success may embolden foreign powers to continue hacking and leaking to their hearts content, both here and abroad. And it sets a worrisome precedent that will be hard to defend against in future elections.

☐ THREATS

Yahoo: Once more unto the breach! Yahoo submitted an SEC filing on Wednesday that revealed that some employees knew of the computer network intrusion in 2014 that led to one of the biggest data breaches ever recorded: the theft of personal information associated with at least 500 million Yahoo accounts. The revelation adds additional strain on Verizon's pending $4.8 billion acquisition of the online portal. (Fortune)

"Hi, I'd like to BLOCK you from my professional network." A Russian court upheld the country's ban of the business-oriented networking site LinkedIn on Thursday. Russia has chosen to enforce, for the first time, a law it passed in 2014 dictating that Russian data must be stored on servers based in Russia. The country has recorded 6 million registered users. (Fortune)

The Tesco Bank Job. Britain's Tesco Bank put tens of thousands of customer accounts on lockdown after it discovered that they had been targeted in a hacking ring. CEO Benny Higgins said the company would refund affected customers, but declined to reveal specifics about the heist. This seems to be one of the first instances on record of a bank admitting that it lost people's money to digital thieves. (Fortune)

Mr. President, tear down this NSA gear. Now that Donald Trump is set to assume the presidency of the United States in next year, civil libertarians are calling for current President Barack Obama to shut down the certain operations of the National Security Agency. These privacy advocates are worried that Trump, who has voiced support for digital surveillance before, could abuse the agency's powers. (Time)

Finally, we offer our condolences to the people Facebook accidentally killed off.

☐ ACCESS GRANTED

Fortune's Jeff John Roberts sets out to determine which cryptocurrencies have real staying power.

Bitcoin is the world's most famous crypto-currency but, these days, you barely hear about it. Instead, the buzz has shifted to blockchain, the underlying technology for bitcoin, which banks are now using for day-to-day business. Meanwhile, newer and more versatile types of digital currency are overshadowing bitcoin.

This raises the question of whether bitcoin even has a long-term future. I recently spoke with Faisal Husain, the CEO of Synechron, which advises banks about blockchain, and asked him if he thought bitcoin and two other well-known cryptocurrencies—Ripple and Ethereum—will still be around in five years.

His answer: two of the three currencies will survive, but he wouldn't say which ones. Read more on Fortune.com

☐ ONE MORE THING

You could have defaced Donald Trump's campaign website. On the night of the U.S. presidential election, some people discovered that you could spoof the content on a page at donaldjtrump.com, posting amusing headlines. Before the site's administrators clamped down on the flaw, I managed to write "Vote Robert Hackett for president"—which, to be clear, I do not actually recommend. (Fortune)
